

RGA Announces Charitable Grants in Honor of Its 50th Anniversary

January 2, 2023

ST. LOUIS--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Jan. 2, 2023-- Reinsurance Group of America, Incorporated (NYSE: RGA) today announced that it has pledged $500,000 to 50 global charitable organizations in honor of the company's 50th anniversary. Through the company and its non-profit foundation, RGA will distribute funds to organizations nominated by employees from its global offices, demonstrating the company's ongoing commitment to the communities in which it operates.

"This year, we celebrate 50 years since our founding," said Anna Manning, President and Chief Executive Officer, RGA. "We are proud of the impact that we have made and are extremely grateful for the trust that our clients, partners, and employees have placed in RGA throughout the last half century. It is our great privilege to mark this occasion by supporting organizations nominated by our employees that are making a difference in our communities around the world."

"At RGA, we are driven by our purpose to help make financial protection accessible to all. Through the company and the RGA Foundation, we are able to support numerous organizations' work with charitable causes that advance this purpose," says RGA's Matt Blakely, Vice President, Corporate Social Responsibility and Sustainability.

Among the programs receiving funding are Frimley Health Charity's Little Stars in the U.K., FoodForward in South Africa, Satoyama Pioneers in Japan, and Dignity Ltd. in Australia. In addition to grants, RGA employees will be engaging with many of the 50 organizations being supported, and we will share these inspiring stories. Follow RGA social media channels to hear more about these charitable causes and the impacts they are making in communities around the world.
